

II CONGRESS of INTERNATIONAL LEGAL PRACTICE

A current review of the legal practice of international private law

Once more, the Law Society of Murcia, through their International Commission, organises II CONGRESS OF INTERNATIONAL LEGAL PRACTICE.

On this occasion we will pay attention to current European legislation along with new regulation regarding succession and divorce, international contracts, aspects of civil responsibility in the use of social media and traffic accidents with international aspects.

We propose the ideal meeting to debate international legal practice between lawyers and other professionals interested in these issues of International Private Law.
