Dear President of the Bar,

The final of the International Human Rights competition for lawyers will take place on Sunday February 2, 2014 at the Memorial of Caen.

Ten lawyers from the 5 continents will present and defend a real individual case in which the violation of human rights were observed.

A jury composed of outstanding personalities, all committed to defending human rights worldwide will award prizes to the best speeches, judged both on the strength of the arguments presented and on the oratory talent.

We would greatly appreciate your promoting this exceptional event.

Do find enclosed two posters, along with the rules ; would you mind using them to encourage lawyers to sign up ?

Needless to say, should you have any questions, please do not fail to contact us.

Anticipated thanks.

Sincerely

Isabelle Bournier
Cultural and educational manager

A forum for human rights

Respect for human rights is still a major issue in many countries.

For the last 25 years, our International Human Rights Competition for lawyers has been intent on informing public opinion on violations of human rights throughout the world, bringing little-known causes to public attention and providing a forum for people to defend human rights.

If you would like to present a case in which human rights have come under attack, just sign up for our competition!

Competition sponsors:

Le Conseil National des Barreaux (National Council of French Bar Associations), La Conférence des Bâtonniers de France et d'Outre-Mer (Conference of Presidents of the Bar in France and overseas territories), Caen Bar, Paris Bar, L'Union Internationale des Avocats (International Union of Lawyers), and La Fédération Nationale des Unions de Jeunes Avocats (National Federation of Young Lawyers' Unions) will promote the competition within the Bars in which they exercise their legal profession.
